

Rules for RCIAT

- 1) Attendance is as follows, maximum allowable absences 2 per semester-You have to remember this is an accelerated program, if you cannot make a commitment do not take classes.
- 2) Class begins at 1000 AM, not 1015, do not be late
- 3) Mass attendance is required, if you don't attend with class, you must have signed bulletin from mass that was attended, even if another Parish.
- 4) There are special family masses, you will be notified in advance, and attendance is required.
- 5) Special meeting with Bishop in spring, date will be given, attendance is required.
- 6) Books required for course will be needed by first day of class, plus a notepad with a writing instrument.
- 7) There is some writing assignments, they must be typed in 12 font and double spaced.
- 8) Students are held responsible for class work and or assignments ample time will be allotted, there will be no late submissions or makeups unless previously discussed with Instructor.
- 9) There is a relaxed dress code, but please nothing inappropriate.
- 10) There will be a progress conference, it will be held before a class date in which will be publicized in advance.